The method of Dishonored 2's problem solving is simultaneously elegant and clunky. Duck into a small entrance, then shadow-step in from the side, slide behind a cop-car with a wall, and then smash through a window to get the keycard. Repeat this process for as many keys as you can find. The next mission? Clear the place of all the cops, and remember to carry the keycard. She's also a great assassin, having recently assassinated a man who held a child hostage in exchange for his life, but stole the child. : Part 3 Welcome to the third series of the Flower Challenge! This time, I'm trying to teach you the technical side of this floral design and crochet. I'd be lying if I told you I wasn't taken by the design on first sight but the more I'd crochet the more I'd wonder "how did she do that???" But as I'd crochet on and more of my patterns would follow, I'd get my chance to see how all those endless techniques work together. And with the help of this tutorial, you'll know too. Materials Click here for the Pattern Here's a sneak peek of all the materials that I used in the pattern. The gauge is calculated with the US size 10 machine. No.5 crochet hook Double crochet (dc) Single crochet (sc) Reverse single crochet (rsc) Front post double crochet (fpdc) Increase x2 Increase 3X Decrease 3X Increase 1X Decrease 2X Decrease 1X Increase 2X Increase 3X Decrease 1X Fabric and threads This time round I'm using the butterick 811-4 Light Update. Love this yarn! It has a comfortable hand, has a nice drape and is even safe for the machine! The size is now 2 and 1/4 ounces and 100% superwash yarn. So, if you ever need some project ideas, this could just be it. And in terms of thread, here's a list of some of them I used: Rowan Lofty Spinneret 50/2 cotton in wheat. Due to missing a colour, you're only getting one colour to work with so remember that, literally! I'm using the choices the designer made, be it a colour within a pair of colours or a totally different one. Sewing Needle and Thread Hooking Up...with Care Step 1: Count Increase and Decrease If you've been following my Flower Challenge series, then you may remember me talking about the foundation chain in the video tutorial. I've already got you covered on this. There's no need to
