Fling is an experimental Android universal launcher for Froyo and Gingerbread. It features. start that unless a Democrat steps up and publicly says he will make sure they get on the ballot in 2012. In 2010, Democrats lost three seats and Republicans picked up two in the Mississippi legislature. If Democrats lose two seats in 2012 and have no wins to point to, they will be in a bad spot — and unless they get a Democratic governor, it will be very hard for them to regain the majority in two years. Second, we need to have an aggressive plan to keep our caucus in power. We need to plan on moving more people across the state and to different counties. This means that wherever you live, we need to make sure we have a statewide candidate on your ballot every time. Every time it gets close, in 2008 and 2010, we failed to do that. This is why we lost. What makes me hopeful is that Democrats are running across the state and doing what they need to do. David Kimball is the executive director of the Mississippi Democratic Party.
