Cards Highway & Workout. LONDON (AP) — Cold weather conditions are making for busier roads and longer commutes for people who work and drive in London. Motorists say the added congestion has a ripple effect on businesses and more time spent getting to work has a corresponding effect on workers. “I’m always told that I look more tired than other people, but I’m never tired,” said Sharon Walters, as she waited for traffic on a sidewalk to clear on Thursday in east London, walking to her parents’ home. Walters is a mother who commutes from Clapham, south London, to Bromley, southeast London, to see her husband and three sons. She said the number of people driving has increased lately. “They’ve been left to their own devices,” she said, adding that there aren’t enough buses to keep up with demand and there’s a shortage of public toilets. Without speed limits, Walters and others said they feel the need to drive defensively to avoid accidents and car-share services are not as convenient as they could be. Viz1 Games may be out of business, but we're not, and we've got so many new games available in the Outlast First edition and Beyond the Fall are some of my favorites (playable tonight, or if you're in the future). Check them out! This video was released as part of our Comic-Con 2018 coverage.
