Fabulous location for walks in the Peak District and it was a shame that we didn't get to venture any further than Buxton due to the budget. The owners have provided everything in the house except provisions. Also the shower in the house... read more “Comfortable house in nice location” I was very pleased with the house. It was fully equipped and the owners provided everything for our stay. The house was clean and we had a very pleasant time in the Peak District. The very near by caravan park was one of the nice features. Was this review helpful? Yes This review is the subjective opinion of a
