. I would not be surprised if he is viewed as a great addition to the team with his work ethic and ideas. I remember him telling me the long 4chan accession was a rush job because he was an intern for 4chan which was his first interview. He really has the attention to detail for someone so young. So to summarize for you, it's the thoughts of an anonymous 4chan moderator who likes getting hired in world famous companies. This is actually quite credible, but one that you can ignore since they are anonymous. Exited 2. I won't name names, but I hear if you quit beforehand you can get some sweet benefits. Whistleblowerl 3. I will be honest, he was brought in as much for his skill in community moderation as tech skill. Mike and I have had a great relationship over the years and I have enjoyed working with him for a long time. Most my motivation for promoting him was to build a more diverse team. Chibi 4. I heard when he quit to go to Yahoo he was offered $1M by them and another $2M from Google but he turned it down because he wanted to work on open source projects. Our CEO tells me he literally could not pass up $3M... not even because of freedom or working on open source. Just as at Google he was very open with why he was a no. He also told me that he has had offers from both LinkedIn and Facebook to come in but turned them down Giantrobo 5. John was always outspoken on the Discord on what he thought of the team and his work. I am happy to see him quit and get a new position! Mike had a good time working with him!// // Generated by class-dump 3.5 (64 bit) (Debug version compiled Oct 15 2018 10:31:50). // // class-dump is Copyright (C) 1997-1998, 2000-2001, 2004-2015 by Steve Nygard. // #import #import
