Wondering why the "movie" has no rating - or. Darkness In High Places: Ascension Darkness In High Places: Ascension is the fourth studio album by the metalcore band Whitechapel. It was released on July 13, 2013, through Good Fight Music. The album features guest vocals from Gary Holt (Sepultura) and Marco

Minerva (Riverside and Liferforce) and was produced by Vinnie Paul. Production and music In an interview with Metal Hammer, vocalist Zack Mykula stated that he was writing material for Darkness In High Places at the same time that the band were writing material for their previous album, Silence in the Snow. He noted that he had finished the lyrics for "The Eye of God" a month before recording. According to Mykula, Darkness In High Places is "essentially the same record as Silence In The Snow.

It's the same album in the same way that Insurgency was the same album as the second Warped Tour". Darkness In High Places: Ascension features guest vocals from Gary Holt (Sepultura) and Marco Minerva (Riverside and Liferforce). According to Mykula, the idea to record an album with guest appearances came about after manager Brandon Bennett was impressed with the band's performance at Warped Tour 2012. It marked the first time that the band had performed at Warped Tour since forming in 2010. The vocal contributions from Holt and Minerva were added to the album while the band were in Seattle recording their previous album Silence in the Snow. Promotion and release On May 8, 2013, Whitechapel released the first track from Darkness In High Places: Ascension. The song, entitled "These Eyes", features guest vocals from Gary Holt (Sepultura) and was produced by Vinnie Paul. On June 3, 2013, Whitechapel released the second song from Darkness In High Places: 6d1f23a050
